

HUMAN TRAFFICKING SYMPOSIUM
Friday, November 9, 2012
9:00 am to 3:00 pm
Mary Ward Centre at Loretto College
70 St. Mary Street, Toronto

The Mary Ward Centre for Justice and Spirituality seeks to promote peace, justice and the integrity of creation. By responding to the signs of the times, just as Mary Ward did, we are challenged to confront the horrific reality of human trafficking. Our hope is that by bringing awareness of this most heinous crime, together, we can work to end this modern day slavery.

The day will provide participants an opportunity to examine the threats to young women (and others) both within Canada and beyond.

Key Note Speaker:
Marty Van Doren
RCMP Human Trafficking
Awareness Coordinator

Retired Superintendent Marty Van Doren will be our key-note speaker. Having spent 35 years of service with the RCMP, Van Doren is now contracted by the RCMP as the “Human Trafficking Awareness Coordinator” for “O” Division of the Province of Ontario. This position supports human trafficking related matters through the delivery of information sessions, conducting research and the collection of data, monitoring human trafficking investigative and intelligence activities and liaising with partners towards the development of enforcement techniques and protocols to ensure the detection and safety of human trafficking victims.

The cost for this event is $10 per person. Lunch will be provided.

Each school is invited to bring up to 10 senior students and one teacher. Space is limited so please register early
