

Ignatius the Mystic and Mysticism Today

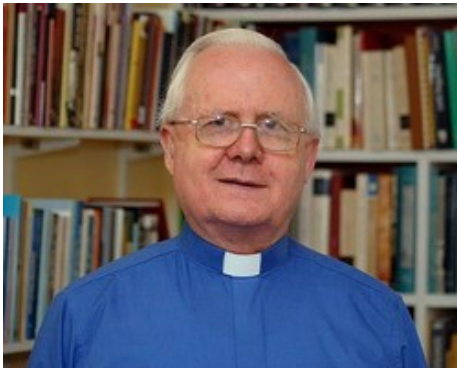

Key Speaker: Brian O'Leary S.J.

May 20 to 24, 2013
The Mary Ward Centre,
Loretto College

This Conference will address the following questions:

Why do we call Ignatius a Mystic? Does his experience help us to understand Christian mysticism in general? How does Ignatian Spirituality help us as we search for meaning today?

Brian O'Leary SJ, an Irish Jesuit, has worked in the field of Ignatian spirituality over many years and in many countries. His combination of direct pastoral experience and academic competence gives him a rounded understanding of Ignatian spirituality.

Workshops will be conducted by:

Arlene Ashack, IBVM, Artist
Dr. Stephen Scharper, Environmentalist
Monty Williams, SJ, Regis College Film

Conference Fee of $195.00 includes lunches, coffee breaks and field trip with BBQ at Loretto Maryholme.
