

Challenging the globalization of indifference

Pope Francis meets with social movements

Guest speaker: Judith Marshall

"The World Meeting of Popular Movements brought to the Vatican a throng of articulate delegates from among the poor and excluded of the 21st century, people fighting for land, for housing, for work and for dignity.

"Pope Francis was a central force for the gathering." Judith Marshall

Come and hear more about this extraordinary meeting and let's talk about how to draw from its inspiration. Join Canadian labour educator, writer and global activist, Judith Marshall, as she shares her experience.

*Thursday, January 29, 7-9 pm
the Mary Ward Centre 70 St. Mary Street, Toronto*

rsvp: info@jesuitforum.ca