

MAKING ETHICAL CHOICES IN TODAY'S WORLD

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 2013 7-9 PM
THE MARY WARD CENTRE
70 ST. MARY STREET TORONTO

Josantony Joseph, visiting from Mumbai, India, is a theologian, social activist, author and currently Advisor to the Commissioner appointed by The Supreme Court of India on the Right to Food.

He was instrumental in setting up the National Centre for Advocacy Studies to introduce the formal study of advocacy methods for civil society groups in India.

He is on the board of Creative Handicrafts, a women's cooperative in Mumbai and of SOPPECOM, an organization working on the right to water and sanitation in India.

Josantony has previously visited Canada as a partner of Development and Peace.

Co-sponsored by: Development and Peace (Toronto Council), Canadian Jesuits International, Jesuit Forum for Social Faith and Justice, and The Mary Ward Centre.

THERE IS NO COST FOR THIS LECTURE

PLEASE RSVP:

mcgowan@marywardcentre.ca

